Corea Man Again In Ellsworth Court

Special Despatch to The Press Herald

Ellsworth, Aug. 24.—Forrest Young of Corea, who was found guilty in the Municipal Court on Friday on the charge of having 24 gallons of alcohol in his home, was arrested today on another charge, that of transportation of this same liquor to his place. Pleading not guilty and waiving examination, he was found guilty and given a fine of $200 and costs and two months in jail. He appealed and furnished $500 bail.

AFFIDAVIT FOR SEARCH WARRANT

UNITED STATES CUSTOMS SERVICE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
STATE OF MAINE } ss:

BEFORE ME Perley E. Priest, a Justice of the Peace
(United States Commissioner or other qualified officer) for the _____ District of Maine, personally appeared Sumner C. Sleeper, who, being by me first sworn and orally examined, deposes and says that he is a duly appointed and qualified officer of the customs, to wit: a deputy Collector of Customs, authorized to make searches and seizures under the customs laws, and that he has cause to suspect and does believe that certain merchandise, to wit: intoxicating liquors in sacks, wooden cases, bottles and other containers

a more particular description of which cannot now be given, upon which the duties have not been paid, or which has otherwise been brought into the United States contrary to law, and that he verily believes said merchandise to be now contained within the premises of Forest Young, said premises being described as a dwelling house, situate at the village of Corea, in the town of Gouldsboro, Hancock County, Maine, being a one and one-half story wooden, frame building located on the easterly side of the main road leading from Prospect Harbor to Corea, said dwelling house being painted white with green trimmings
(Dwelling house, store, or other building)

And in support of his belief in the foregoing facts, affiant attaches hereto the affidavit of Howe D. Higgins, a witness, which affidavit is made a part of the record in this case.

WHEREFORE, affiant asks that warrant to enter said building to search for and seize said merchandise issue to him.
