Surfman - Sardine Carrier

Vessel History

Surfman – Sardine Carrier

Class: Sardine Carrier
Hull: Wood
Masts: 1
Designed by: Camden Anchor-Rockland Machine Co.
Build date: 1918
Built by: Camden Anchor-Rockland Machine Co.
Built at: Camden, Maine
Built for: Addison Packing Company
Named for: Surfman - One who serves in a surfboat in the life-saving service.
Power: 50 h.p. - 9 miles an hour
Gross tons: 24
Net tons: 6
Capacity: 34 hogsheads - [1 hogshead = 17½ bushels or 63 U.S. gallons]
Length: 56.2'
Beam: 12.5'
Depth: 6.7'
Crew: capacity 4 men
Number: 216165
Call Sign: WB3457

PDF: https://swhpl.digitalarchive.us/files/original/14185/Surfman_Sardine_Carrier_-_T.pdf

Identifier: 14185
Title: Surfman - Sardine Carrier
Type: Reference
Subject: Vessels, Boat, Sardine Carrier
Rights: In Copyright - Non-Commercial Use Permitted