

No-Name - Lobster Boat - Bracy - Wesley Peterson Bracy

Vessel History

No-Name – Lobster Boat – Bracy – Wesley Peterson Bracy

Built As: No-Name
Class: Lobster Boat
Hull: Wood
Masts: Staysail Mast
Designed By: Charles Wesley Bracy (1865-1946) – Wesley's father
Build Date: Late 1920s
Built by: Charles Wesley Bracy (1865-1946)
Built at: Great Cranberry Island, Maine
Built for: Wesley Peterson Bracy (1906-2000)
Power: Gasoline engine
Length: Circa 30-32'
Crew: 1-2
Subsequent Owners: George Benjamin Dolliver (1889-1963)
Disposition: Sold to someone in Northeast Harbor

Author: Charlotte Morrill

"When the boat was new, Wesley sailed Mrs. Neilson from Northeast Harbor for at least one year, before my father starting sailing her in the 'Leader'." – Ralph Warren Stanley 11/22/19

Clara Augusta Rosengarten Neilson (1871-1955)
Chester Warren Stanley (1900-1971)

PDF: https://swhpl.digitalarchive.us/files/original/15688/No-Name_Lobster_Boat_Bracy_Wesley_Peterson_Bracy_.pdf

Identifier: 15688

Title: No-Name - Lobster Boat - Bracy - Wesley Peterson Bracy

Type: Reference

Subject: Vessels, Boat, Lobster Boat

Rights: In Copyright - Non-Commercial Use Permitted