

Bunker & Savage Architects

Business History

Bunker & Savage Architects

Address: 256 Water Street: in the Augusta Trust Building, later the Parrott Building - B.F. Parrott - the original building was destroyed by fire on February 9, 1949.

City: Augusta

State: Maine

Map and Lot: Map 34: Lot 34-51: subsumed into 286 Water Street

Date Founded: 1918-1919

Owners:

Bunker - William Gleason Bunker (1872-1957)

Savage - Arthur Reed Savage (1889-1972)

Duration: Firm still in business 2015.

1933: "School House Building a Specialty"

Built:

1926 & 1932:

Old Cony High School at Cony and Stone Streets, Augusta, Maine
NRHP: 88001841

1933:

Southwest Motor Company: replaced the burned Moore's Garage - See: Moore's Garage
U.S. Post Office - Southwest Harbor - 1987 to present date
ME - SWH - Clark Point Road - 019

1938:

Pemetic High School
ME - SWH - Main Street - 329

See:

The New Pemetic High School, Southwest Harbor, Maine - 1938
Architectural Drawing by Bunker and Savage, Architects - 1937
Number 10762 - The Southwest Harbor Public Library Digital Reference Archive

See: "Water Street, Augusta, Maine" by Katherine H. Hax, City of Augusta Community Development,
c. 1985, p. 26-27 - The Day Building.

PDF: https://swhpl.digitalarchive.us/files/original/15916/Bunker\_Savage\_Architects.pdf

Identifier: 15916

Title: Bunker & Savage Architects

Type: Reference

Subject: Businesses, Building Business

Description: Bunker & Savage Architects was founded by William Gleason Bunker and Arthur Reed Savage in 1918 or 1919.

Address: 256 Water Street

Place: Augusta ME

State: ME

Country: USA

Rights: In Copyright - Non-Commercial Use Permitted