

Emily Robinson Farnsworth and Sisters on the Steps of Her Millinery Shop

Identifier: 7695

Accession #: 1132

Title: Emily Robinson Farnsworth and Sisters on the Steps of Her Millinery Shop

Type: Image, Photograph

Subject: Structures, Commercial, Store

People

Description: The building just visible on the left is the James E. Robinson house at 410 Main Street in Southwest Harbor.

The building on the right of the store is the Hiram Houston / Eben F. Richardson House at 406 Main Street. The Farnsworth store is now part of this property.

Seated on steps Left to Right:

Ina Caroline "Cad" (Robinson) Lawler (1865-1959) - Mrs. Allen Jacob Lawler

Possibly Abigail "Argo" (Whitmore) Robinson (1829-1906) - Mrs. James E. Robinson

Robinson - Emily (Robinson) Farnsworth (1851-1905)

Elvira "Vira" Jane (Robinson) Mayo (1867-1960) - Mrs. Simeon Holden Mayo

Unknown man, probably a Robinson.

"Cad," Emily and "Vira" were sisters. Emily Robinson was a milliner, and sported fancy hats to advertise her business.

Address: 406 Main Street

Place: Southwest Harbor

State: ME

Country: USA

Date: 1890 c.

Source: Collection of the Mayo Family

Rights: No Copyright - United States