Carpenter Shop

"Sylvester W. Dorr built the large, low shop on the next lot as a carpenter shop and later sold it to E. A. Lawler. It is now divided into two stores - one for the Lawler Paint Co. and the other for the Whitney Electrical store. An addition was built to the paint store in 1937." - Traditions and Records of Southwest Harbor and Somesville, Mount Desert Island, Maine by Mrs. Seth S. Thornton, p. 157; 1938 Dorr - Sylvester Warren Dorr (1888-1959)

Painter and Paint Store

"E.A. Lawler Buys Dorr Building for Shop
The Dorr building on the Clark's Point Road has been purchased by E.A. Lawler, who already occupies part of it as a paint shop and storage place. The other side is occupied by Robinson Brothers as a salesroom for automobile accessories and they are to remain there." - Bar Harbor Times, May 9, 1923.
Lawler: Edwin Albert Lawler (1856-1930)

1994: Edwin's son, John Dix Lawler, who had run the paint company for many years, sold the property in 1994 to Armand J. Auclair Jr. for his business, Coastline Construction.
